

Alaska Commercial Company / Cost-U-Less Electronic Payments

Alaska Commercial Company (ACC) and Cost-U-Less offer 2 electronic payment options in partnership with Wells Fargo; ACH and credit card.

ACH Payment

Available for USD payments made to banks within the American banking system (50 states, American Samoa, Guam, Puerto Rico, Northern Marianas, US Virgin Islands).

To enroll:

- Send an email to vendormanagement@northwest.ca with your company name, supplier ID, and a contact name and email address. You do not need to send banking details
- All requests will be forwarded to Wells Fargo for processing
- Wells Fargo will send self-enrollment instructions by email
- After providing your banking details to Wells Fargo, they will send a test payment and confirmation email
- After the test payment has been confirmed, Wells Fargo will inform ACC / CUL to change the payment method to ACH

When a payment is sent, you will receive remittance information by email in PDF format. The payment will be deposited in the bank account selected during the enrollment process.

Credit Card Payment

Available for USD payments to anyone who can accept payments from an American credit card.

To enroll:

- Send an email to vendormanagement@northwest.ca with your company name, supplier ID, and a contact name and email address. You do not need to send banking details
- Wells Fargo will process the request and inform ACC / CUL to change the payment method to credit card

When a payment is sent, you will receive a secure email from Wells Fargo that includes both payment details and a one-time use credit card number. This card number can be used to collect the payment like any other credit card payment. Standard fees apply.
